Defendant.                 )      No. 1:13-cr-00053-JMS-TAB

ORDER ADOPTING REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

Having reviewed Magistrate Judge Debra McVicker Lynch's Report and Recommendation that Anthony Coleman's supervised released be revoked, pursuant to Title 18 U.S.C. §3401(i), Rule 32.1(a)(1) Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and Title 18 U.S.C. §3583, and with no objections being filed, the Court APPROVES and ADOPTS Magistrate Judge Lynch's Report and Recommendation dkt. [63]. The Court finds that Mr. Coleman committed Violation Numbers 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7, as alleged by the U.S. Probation Office in its Petitions for Warrant or Summons for Offender under Supervision dkts [37, 45, 54 & 56]. The Court now orders that the defendant's supervised release is therefore REVOKEKD, and Anthony Coleman is sentenced to the custody of the Attorney General or his designee for a period of twelve (12) months, with nine (9) months of supervised release to follow. The defendant is ORDERED detained and remanded to the custody of the US Marshal Service.

In addition to the mandatory conditions of supervision, the following conditions of supervised release will be imposed:

- You shall report to the probation office in the district to which you are released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

- You shall report to the probation officer in a manner and frequency directed by the court or probation officer.
- You shall permit a probation officer to visit you at a reasonable time at home, or another place where the officer may legitimately enter by right or consent, and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view of the probation officer.
- You shall not knowingly leave the judicial district without the permission of the court or probation officer.
- You shall answer truthfully the inquiries by the probation officer, subject to your 5th Amendment privilege.
- You shall not meet, communicate, or otherwise interact with a person you know to be engaged, or planning to be engaged, in criminal activity. You shall report any contact with persons you know to be convicted felons to your probation officer within 72 hours of the contact.
- You shall reside at a location approved by the probation officer and shall notify the probation officer at least 72 hours prior to any planned change in place or circumstances of residence or employment (including, but not limited to, changes in who lives there, job positions, job responsibilities). When prior notification is not possible, you shall notify the probation officer within 72 hours of the change.
- You shall not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device or dangerous weapon.
- You shall notify the probation officer within 72 hours of being arrested, charged, or questioned by a law enforcement officer.
- You shall maintain lawful full time employment, unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, vocational training, or other reasons that prevent lawful employment.
- As directed by the probation officer, you shall notify third parties who may be impacted by the nature of the conduct underlying your current or prior offense(s) of conviction and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and/or confirm your compliance with this requirement.
- You shall make a good faith effort to follow instructions of the probation officer necessary to ensure compliance with the conditions of supervision.
- You shall pay the costs associated with the following imposed conditions of supervised release/probation, to the extent you are financially able to pay: substance abuse treatment. The probation officer shall determine your ability to pay and any schedule of payment.

- You shall participate in a substance abuse or alcohol treatment program approved by the probation officer, and abide by the rules and regulations of that program. The probation officer shall supervise your participation in the program (provider, location, modality, duration, intensity, etc.). The court authorizes the release of the presentence report and available evaluations to the treatment provider, as approved by the probation officer.
- You shall not use or possess any controlled substances prohibited by applicable state or federal law, unless authorized to do so by a valid prescription from a licensed medical practitioner. You shall follow the prescription instructions regarding frequency and dosage.
- You shall submit to substance abuse testing to determine if you have used a prohibited substance or to determine compliance with substance abuse treatment. Testing may include no more than 8 drug tests per month. You shall not attempt to obstruct or tamper with the testing methods.
- You shall provide the probation officer access to any requested financial information and shall authorize the release of that information to the U.S. Attorney's Office for use in connection with the collection of any outstanding fines and/or restitution.
- You shall submit to the search by the probation officer of your person, vehicle, office/business, residence, and property, including any computer systems and hardware or software systems, electronic devices, telephones, and Internet-enabled devices, including the data contained in any such items, whenever the probation officer has a reasonable suspicion that a violation of a condition of supervision or other unlawful conduct may have occurred or be underway involving you and that the area(s) to be searched may contain evidence of such violation or conduct. Other law enforcement may assist as necessary. You shall submit to the seizure of contraband found by the probation officer. You shall warn other occupants these locations may be subject to searches.
